THE VAPOR DESERTER

ARCHETYPE

You were so flattered when they contacted you: The most secret division of the New Empire's most secretive organization. "We have been watching you," they said, "as we watch all promising VAPOR officers. But you were the one we chose." The first meeting, the training and the initiation—they passed like in a dream. And just like with dreams, there came a moment of awakening. On your first assignment, you realized just what they mean in Division Z when they talk about zeal. You were supposed to hunt down a perfectly innocent person, extract her implant and bring it back to headquarters. But you just couldn't do it. You will never forget the feeling of complete self-loathing when you realized where your own implant must have come from. And so you ran. And now they are after you.

ARCHETYPE BOON

You start with a prototype +3 Speed implant That doesn't count towards your maximum. VAPOR wants it back badly, and as it is chemical, it needs to be replenished every six months. If it is removed, you will be in withdrawal with Speed hard capped at 1 for a month.
